The Board will be composed of seven (7) directors with a collective working knowledge, experience or expertise that is relevant to KPHI's industry/sector. The Board will always ensure that it has an appropriate mix of competence and expertise and that its members remain qualified for their positions individually and collectively, to enable it to fulfill its roles and responsibilities and respond to the needs of the organization based on the evolving business environment and strategic direction.

The Board will be elected at the Annual Stockholders' Meeting, to hold office until the next succeeding annual meeting and until their respective successors have been elected and qualified. Any vacancy in the Board is to be filled up by a majority vote of the entire Board at a meeting specially called for the purpose.

Being a member of the Board, he will not prejudice the secretariat functions since he will adhere to the rules and regulations of the SEC and other governing bodies.

3.1.6 Compliance Officer

The Board will ensure that it is assisted in its duties by a Compliance Officer, who will have a rank of Vice President or an equivalent position with adequate stature and authority in KPHI. The Compliance Officer may be a member of the Board of Directors and will annually attend training on corporate governance.

As stated in SEC Memo Circular 19, Series of 2016, it is recommended that the Compliance Officer should not be a member of the Board of Directors. However, due to simple structure and operation of KPHI, its Compliance Officer may also be a member of the Board of Directors. Being a member of the Board, he will not prejudice the compliance functions since he will adhere to the rules and regulations of the SEC and other governing bodies.

3.2 ESTABLISHING CLEAR ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE BOARD

- i. Shareholders will have the right to receive dividends subject to the discretion of the Board.
- ii. Dividends will be declared and paid out of the unrestricted retained earnings which will be payable in cash, property, or stock to all stockholders on the basis of outstanding stock held by them, as often and at such times as the Board of Directors may determine in accordance with the law and applicable rules and regulations.
- iii. KPHI will be compelled to declare dividends when its retained earnings will be in excess of 100% of its paid-in capital stock, except: a) when justified by definite corporate expansion projects or programs approved by the Board or b) when KPHI is prohibited under any loan agreement with any financial institution or creditor, whether local or foreign, from declaring dividends without its consent, and such consent has not been secured; or c) when it can be clearly shown that such retention is necessary under special circumstances obtaining in KPHI, such as when there is a need for special reserve for probable contingencies.

f. Appraisal rights;

- i. The shareholders will have appraisal right or the right to dissent and demand payment of the fair value of their shares in the manner provided for under Section 82 of the Corporation Code of the Philippines, under any of the following circumstances:
 - In case any amendment to the Articles of Incorporation has the effect of changing or restricting the rights of any stockholders or class of shares, or of authorizing preferences in any respect superior to those of outstanding shares of any class, or of extending or shortening the term of corporate existence;
 - In case of sale, lease, exchange, transfer, mortgage, pledge or other disposition of all or substantially all of the corporate property and assets as provided in the Corporation Code; and
 - In case of merger or consolidation.
- ii. It will be the duty of the Board to promote shareholder rights, remove impediments to the exercise of shareholders' rights and allow possibilities to seek redress for violation of their rights. They will encourage the exercise of shareholders' voting rights and the solution of collective action problems through appropriate mechanisms. They will be instrumental in removing excessive costs and other administrative or practical impediments to shareholders participating in meetings and/or voting in person. The Board will pave the way for the electronic filing and distribution of shareholder information necessary to make informed decisions subject to legal constraints.

- g. Rights to propose the holding of meetings and to include agenda items ahead of the scheduled Annual and Special Shareholders' Meeting;

This is subject to limits and ownership requirement prescribed by the Board. However, to prevent the abuse of this right, the Company may require that the proposal be made by the shareholders holding a specified percentage of shares or voting rights. On the other hand, to ensure that minority shareholders are not effectively prevented from exercising this right, the degree of ownership concentration is considered in determining the threshold.

- h. Right to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors subject to guidelines prescribed by the Board and the Nomination Committee;

The Board will be transparent and fair in the conduct of the annual and special stockholders' meetings of KPHI. The stockholders will be encouraged to personally attend such meetings. If they cannot attend, they will be apprised ahead of time of their right to appoint a proxy. Subject to the requirements of the by-laws, the exercise of that right will not be unduly restricted and any doubt about the validity of a proxy will be resolved in the stockholder's favor.

- i. Right related to the nomination process;

All shareholders must be given the opportunity to nominate candidates to the Board of Directors in accordance with the existing laws. The procedures of the nomination process are expected to be discussed clearly by the Board. KPHI is encouraged to fully and promptly disclose all information regarding the experience and background of the candidates to enable the shareholders to study and conduct their own background check as to the candidates' qualification and credibility.

- j. Right related to the voting procedures that will govern the Annual and Special Stockholders' Meetings.

Shareholders are also encouraged to participate when given sufficient information prior to voting on fundamental corporate changes such as:

- amendments to the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of KPHI;
- the authorization on the increase in authorized capital stock; and
- extraordinary transactions, including the transfer of all or substantially all assets that in effect result in the sale of KPHI.

In addition, the disclosure and clear explanation of the voting procedures, as well as removal of excessive or unnecessary costs and other administrative impediments, allow for the effective exercise of the shareholders' voting rights. Poll voting is highly encouraged as opposed to the show of hands. Proxy voting is also a good practice, including the electronic distribution of proxy materials.

- 6.2 The Board will encourage active shareholder participation by sending the Notice of Annual and Special Shareholders' Meeting with sufficient and relevant information at least 28 days before the meeting.

The information in the Notice include, among others, the date, location, meeting agenda and its rationale and explanation, and details of issues to be deliberated on and approved or ratified at the meeting.

- 6.3 The Board will encourage active shareholder participation by making the result of the votes taken during the most recent Annual or Special Shareholders' Meeting publicly available the next working day. In addition, the Minutes of the Annual and Special Shareholders' Meeting will be available on KPHI's website within five (5) business days from the end of the meeting.
