6 - Management's Discussion and Analysis

Results for the Year

Year Ended 2017

Keppel Philippines Holdings, Inc. (KPH) and its subsidiaries (the "Company") recorded a net income of $\mathbb{P}54.9$ million in 2017, higher than $\mathbb{P}23.8$ million in 2016 and $\mathbb{P}26.9$ million in 2015. The increase was primarily due to higher revenue this year of $\mathbb{P}91.2$ million as against $\mathbb{P}44.7$ million in 2016, and $\mathbb{P}46.3$ million in 2015. Revenues in 2017 were mainly from gain on sale of investment properties, rental income, interest income, equity in net earnings of an associate, and management fees. The increase in revenue was partially offset by higher operating expenses of $\mathbb{P}23.6$ million in 2017 and higher provision for income tax of $\mathbb{P}12.8$ million.

The Company realized gain on sale on investment properties of $\frac{P}{4}9.6$ million from sale of its condominium units in Makati City, Cebu City and residential unit at Batangas City. The proceeds received from the sale of properties amounted to $\frac{P}{5}2.90$ million.

Rental revenue for the year amounted to ₱18.0 million as against rental revenue of ₱20.5 million and ₱19.4 million in 2016 and 2015, respectively. The decrease was due to the sale of the condominium units.

Interest income from short-term and long-term loans granted to related company and short-term deposits this year amounted to ₱12.5 million, ₱10.6 million in 2016, and ₱9.6 million in 2015. The interest earned from the loans granted to a related company amounted to ₱11.5 million, ₱10.0 million and ₱8.0 million in 2017, 2016 and 2015, respectively. Interest rates are agreed upon with related party on arms-length based on lowest loan rates of at least three (3) commercial banks on date of granting or renewal of the short-term loan. The interest earned from short-term deposits amounted to ₱0.9 million, ₱0.6 million, and ₱1.6 million in 2017, 2016 and 2015, respectively.

The equity in net earnings of associate CLI as of 31 December 2017 amounted to ₱8.7 million lower than in 2016 of ₱10.3 million and in 2015 of ₱14.8 million. This was brought by lower income realized by CLI during the years. The Company received cash dividend from CLI amounting to ₱3.5 million in 2017, ₱11.1 million in 2016 and ₱17.5 million in 2015.

Management fees charged to related parties amounted to ₱1.8 million, ₱1.4 million and ₱1.2 million in 2017, 2016, and 2015, respectively.

Operating expenses amounted to ₱23.6 million, ₱16.7 million, and ₱14.7 million in 2017, 2016 and 2015, respectively. The increase in expenses was brought mainly by: a) higher salaries & benefits due to accrual of retirement plan benefits for the staff and cost of transfer of employees from related company to KPH; b) higher professional (legal) fees; c) higher provision for impairment losses on creditable withholding taxes; and d) commission for the sale of investment properties.

The Company realized other comprehensive income from fair value gain adjustment on AFS financial assets of ₱0.5 million in 2017, ₱3.7 million in 2016, and ₱0.8 million in 2015.

Financial Condition

The cash position of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2017 amounted to $87.9 million as against the same period last year of $24.3 million. The increase of $63.6 million was brought mainly by the proceeds from the sale of investment property of $52.9 million, net effect of granting of new loan and repayment amounting to $75.0 million, interest income received from loans and deposits of $12.8 million, and receipt of dividends of $3.5 million. This was partially offset by payment of dividends of $69.0 million to shareholders, net cash provided for operating activities of $11.5 million and acquisition of office equipment of $0.1 million.

Total receivables both current and non-current this year amounted to $\frac{1}{2}76.0$ million as against last year of $\frac{1}{2}353.7$ million. The decrease was brought mainly by repayment of short-term and long-term loans of $\frac{1}{2}207.5$ million partially offset by the granting of new short-term loans amounting to $\frac{1}{2}132.5$ million, with 90-day, interest bearing of 2.8% to 3.5% and collection from rental receivable.

Other current assets increased to $\mathbb{P}0.7$ million as against $\mathbb{P}0.1$ million last year. The increase was due to higher advances subject for liquidation and prepaid expenses.

Available-for-sale financial assets related to a quoted club share at fair value price as of December 2017 and 2016 amounting to $\mathbb{P}20.0$ million and $\mathbb{P}19.5$ million, respectively.

Investment in an associate increased from $\mathbb{P}415.2$ million in 2016 to $\mathbb{P}420.4$ million this year. The increase was mainly due to equity in net income of CLI of $\mathbb{P}8.7$ million. This was reduced by the cash dividend received from CLI this year amounting to $\mathbb{P}3.5$ million.

Investment properties and Property and equipment decreased from ₱209.5 million in 2016 to ₱206.0 million this period due to sale of depreciated condominium units with book value of $$\mathbb{P}3.3$ million, depreciation of <math>\mathbb{P}0.3$ million and partially offset by purchase of office equipment amounting to $\mathbb{P}0.1$ million.

Total liabilities increased from $\mathbb{P}8.6$ million in 2016 to $\mathbb{P}11.1$ million this year. The increase of $\mathbb{P}2.5$ million was due to the net effect of higher accruals of operating expenses by $\mathbb{P}4.4$ million, particularly the increase in accrual of retirement cost by $\mathbb{P}4.0$ million, and payable to government agencies including income tax liability of $\mathbb{P}0.6$ million. This was partially offset by decrease in security deposits, advance rental and deferred tax liability by $\mathbb{P}2.5$ million.

Total equity as of 31 December 2017 amounted to ₱1,004.2 million and ₱1,017.9 million in December 2016. Retained earnings amounted to ₱477.2 million as of December 2017 as compared to ₱438.2 million in December 2016. The increase was due to net income after non-controlling interests of ₱44.8 million partially offset by cash dividend of ₱5.8 million.

The equity attributable to equity holders of the parent amounted to ₱620.4 million and ₱580.9 million as of December 2017 and 2016, respectively. The net book value per share as of December 2017 was ₱10.73 as against December 2016 of ₱10.05. The earnings per share attributable to the equity holders of the parent as of December 2017 and 2016 were ₱0.78 and ₱0.24, respectively.

KPH recorded a net income of $\textstyle{P}23.8$ million in 2016 as against $\textstyle{P}26.9$ million in 2015 and $\textstyle{P}26.2$ million in 2014. The Company achieved revenues of $\textstyle{P}44.7$ million this year as against $\textstyle{P}46.3$ million in 2015, and $\textstyle{P}46.2$ million in 2014. Revenues in 2016 were mainly from rental income, equity share in net earnings of associates, interest income, dividend income and management fees.

The Company realized rental revenue of ₱20.5 million, ₱19.4 million and ₱19.3 million in 2016, 2015 and 2014, respectively, brought by increase in rental rate. The equity in net earnings of associate CLI as of December 31, 2016 of ₱10.3 million was lower than in 2015 of ₱14.8 million and in 2014 of ₱20.0 million. This was brought by lower income realized by CLI in 2016. The Company received cash dividend from CLI amounting to ₱11.1 million in 2016, ₱17.5 million in 2015 and ₱14.0 million in 2014.

The Company earned interest income from loans granted to a related company and from short-term deposits amounting to ₱10.6 million in 2016, ₱9.6 million in 2015, and ₱4.7 million in 2014. The interest earned from the loans granted to a related company amounted to ₱10.0 million, ₱8.0 million and ₱2.0 million in 2016, 2015 and 2014, respectively. The increase was brought by the higher short-term loan granted from ₱100.0 million in 2015 to ₱229.5 million in 2016. This was partially offset by lower interest earned from long-term loan due to repayment of principal amounting to ₱50.0 million. The interest earned from short-term deposits amounted to ₱0.6 million, ₱1.6 million and ₱2.7 million in 2016, 2015 and 2014, respectively. The decrease was due to lower funds in short-term deposits.

The Company earned dividend income from an associate of ₱1.6 million in 2016. Management fees charged to related parties amounted to ₱1.4 million in 2016, and ₱1.2 million in 2015, and 2014.

The Company generated other income of ₱0.3 million this year as against ₱1.3 million in 2015 and ₱1.1 million in 2014. The decrease was brought by reversal of prior years' accrual amounting to ₱0.7 million and commission earned from joint venture agreement with related company of ₱0.3 million in 2015 and ₱0.9 in 2014.

Operating expenses in 2016 amounted to ₱16.7 million, 14% higher as against ₱14.7 million in 2015, and 4% lower as against ₱17.5 million in 2014. Increase in expenses was brought mainly by the impact of the recovered creditable withholding tax which was previously provided with allowance in prior years and none this year. Salaries and benefits, taxes and licenses, travel and transportation cost, utilities and office supplies also increased and were partially offset by lower depreciation expense, membership dues, professional fees and others.

The Company realized other comprehensive income from fair value gain adjustment on AFS financial assets of ₽3.7 million in 2016, ₽0.8 million in 2015 and nil in 2014.

Financial Condition

The cash position of the Company for the year ended 31 December 2016 amounted to ₱24.3 million as against the same period last year of ₱55.1 million. The decrease of 56% or ₱30.8 million was brought mainly by the net effect of granting of new loan and repayment amounting to ₱29.5 million, payment of dividends of ₱15.7 million and buy-back of KPH shares amounting to ₱12.7 million. This was partially offset by the receipt of cash dividend of ₱12.7 million, receipt of interest from loans and deposits of ₱10.2 million and net cash provided by operating activities of ₱4.0 million

Total net receivables this year amounted to $\clubsuit 353.7$ million as against last year of $\clubsuit 324.2$ million. The increase was by brought mainly by $\clubsuit 176.8$ million short-term loan with 90-day, interest bearing of 2.8% to 3.2% granted to a related company, increase in interest receivable of $\clubsuit 1.2$ million in 2016 from $\clubsuit 0.8$ million in 2015 and increase in other receivables of $\clubsuit 1.5$ million as against last year of $\clubsuit 1.2$ million. The increase was partially offset by principal payment on long term loan of $\clubsuit 50.0$ million and payment of short-term loan receivable of $\clubsuit 97.3$ million.

Other current assets decreased to $\textstyle{P}0.1$ million this year as against $\textstyle{P}1.0$ million in 2015. The decrease was due primarily to application of creditable withholding tax and input vat against provision for income tax and output tax.

Available-for-sale financial assets related to a quoted club share as of December 2016 and 2015 amounted to $\mathbb{P}$19.5 million and $\mathbb{P}$15.8 million, respectively. Investment in an associate decreased from $\mathbb{P}$416.0 million in 2015 to $\mathbb{P}$415.2 million this year. The decrease was due primarily to lower equity share in net income of CLI of $\mathbb{P}$10.3 million this year as against $\mathbb{P}$14.9 million 2015. The share was reduced by the cash dividend received from CLI this year amounting to $\mathbb{P}$11.1 million as against $\mathbb{P}$17.5 million in 2015. Investment properties and Property and equipment decreased from $\mathbb{P}$209.9 million in 2015 to $\mathbb{P}$209.6 million this period due to depreciation. Total liabilities increased from ₱7.4 million in 2015 to ₱8.6 million this year. The 13.0% increase was due increase in accruals for expenses and provision for income tax.

Total equity as of 31 December 2016 amounted to ₱1,017.9 million and ₱1,018.8 million in December 2015. Retained earnings amounted to ₱438.2 million as of December 2016 as compared to ₱430.7 million in December 2015. Independent Auditor's Report

To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Keppel Philippines Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries Unit 3-B, Country Space 1 Building 133 Sen. Gil Puyat Avenue, Salcedo Village Barangay Bel-Air Makati City

Our Opinion

In our opinion, the accompanying consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of Keppel Philippines Holdings, Inc. (the "Parent Company") and its subsidiaries (together, the "Group") as at December 31, 2017 and 2016, and the consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRSs).

What we have audited

The consolidated financial statements of the Group comprise:

- the consolidated statements of financial position as at December 31, 2017 and 2016;
- the consolidated statements of income for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016;
- the consolidated statements of total comprehensive income for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016;
- the consolidated statements of changes in equity for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016;
- the consolidated statements of cash flows for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016; and
- the notes to the consolidated financial statements, which include a summary of significant accounting policies.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with Philippine Standards on Auditing (PSAs). Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Independence

We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants in the Philippines (Code of Ethics), together with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the Philippines, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the Code of Ethics.

Our Audit Approach

As part of designing our audit, we determined materiality and assessed the risks of material misstatement in the consolidated financial statements. In particular, we considered where management made subjective judgments; for example, in respect of significant accounting estimates that involved making assumptions and considering future events that are inherently uncertain. As in all of our audits, we also addressed the risk of management override of internal controls, including among other matters, consideration of whether there was evidence of bias that represented a risk of material misstatement due to fraud.

We tailored the scope of our audit in order to perform sufficient work to enable us to provide an opinion on the consolidated financial statements as a whole, taking into account the structure of the Group, the accounting processes and controls, and the industry in which the Group operates.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgment, were of most significance in our audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the consolidated financial statements as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

The only key audit matter identified in our audit pertains to the assessment of recoverability of investment properties.

Independent Auditor's Report To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Keppel Philippines Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries Page 3

Key Audit Matter	How our Audit Addressed the Key Audit Matter
Assessment of recoverability of investment properties Refer to Note 7 for the details of the Group's investment properties and to Note 19-2 (c) for the discussion on critical accounting judgment. This is an area of focus mainly due to the number of investment properties held by the Group. The account, which represents 20% of total assets, is part of the Group's real estate business segment.	We addressed the matter through inspection of significant long and short-term lease contracts. The objective of this procedure is to obtain comfort over the sustainability of cash flows from leasing contracts. The inspection procedures included thorough understanding of the terms and conditions of the underlying lease contracts as well as the state of the individual assets. Our inspection did not note any cancellation or potential cancellation of existing lease agreements. Additionally, we examined the latest appraisal report prepared by a third party appraiser and noted that the aggregate and individual fair values of the investment properties are higher than their respective carrying amounts. Comfor over the reliability of the appraisal report was obtained through independent verification of certain fair value assumptions (i.e. similar market listing in the area) over the Group's land properties, which comprised approximately 989 of the total carrying amount of the account. We also verified the independence and competency of the third-party appraiser. The results of procedures performed and discussions with management did not note any indicators of impairment as at December 31.

Other Information

Management is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the SEC Form 20-IS (Definitive Information Statement), and SEC Form 17-A for the year ended December 31, 2017, but do not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The SEC Form 20-IS (Definitive Information Statement), and SEC Form 17-A are expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audits of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit, or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

Responsibilities of Management and Those Charged with Governance for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in accordance with PFRSs, and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the ability of each entity within the Group to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the entity or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those charged with governance are responsible for overseeing the Group's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with PSAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these consolidated financial statements.

Isla Lipana & Co.

Independent Auditor's Report
To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Keppel Philippines Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries

As part of an audit in accordance with PSAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Group's internal control.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the ability of each entity within the Group to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause an entity within the Group to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

Isla Lipana & Co.

Independent Auditor's Report To the Board of Directors and Shareholders of Keppel Philippines Holdings, Inc. and Subsidiaries Page 6

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Other Matter

The consolidated financial statements as at and for the year ended December 31, 2015 were audited by another auditor whose report thereon dated January 28, 2016, expressed an unmodified opinion on those statements. Our opinion is not qualified in respect of this matter.

Segment assets and segment liabilities are measured in the same way as in the consolidated financial statements. These assets and liabilities are allocated based on the operations of the segment.

Segment revenue, segment expenses, and segment results include transfers between business segments. Those transfers are eliminated in consolidation.

All of the Group's revenues are derived from operations within the Philippines, hence, the Group did not present geographical information required by PFRS 8. Operating Segments.

Rental income from KPMI amounting to P12.8 million in 2017 comprise 14.1% of the Group's revenue (2016 - P12.8 million and 28.9%; 2015 - P13.6 million and 30.0%).

Note 17 - Other matters

In September 2003, the Parent Company filed a complaint against PNOC for specific performance with the Regional Trial Court (RTC) of Batangas City for the enforcement of the contract relating to the option to purchase a piece of land in Batangas. A judgment was rendered in January 2006 in favor of the Parent Company ordering PNOC to accept the payment of P4.1 million as full and complete payment of the purchase price, and to execute a Deed of Absolute Sale in favor of the Parent Company. PNOC, however, filed an appeal with the Court of Appeals (CA) in the same year. The CA dismissed PNOC's appeal in December 2011.

On July 25, 2016, the Supreme Court (SC) affirmed the decision of the CA and upbeld the Parent Company's option to buy the land and remanded the case to the RTC of Batangas City to update the Parent Company's Filipino equity ownership. On December 14, 2016, SC's decision became final and executory and was recorded in the Books of Entries of Judgments. As at January 26, 2018, the Parent Company is still awaiting on the final resolution of the RTC.

The Parent Company's cash deposit of P4.1 million with the Court is presented in the consolidated statement of financial position under other non-current assets. The said piece of land is the subject of a lease agreement between the Parent Company and KPMI (Note 10).

Note 18 - Financial risk management and capital management

18.1 Financial risk management

The Group's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks: credit risk, interest rate risk, equity price risk, and liquidity risk that could affect its financial position and results of operations. The Group's overall risk management program focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimize potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance.

The BOD reviews and approves the policies for managing each of these risks which are summarized below:

(a) Credit risk

Credit risk pertains to the risk that a party to a financial instrument will fail to discharge its obligation and cause the other party to incur a financial loss.

The Group transacts mostly with related parties, thus, there is no requirement for collateral.

Receivables are monitored on an ongoing basis with the result that the Group's exposure to bad debts is not significant. Significant concentration of credit risk in 2017 and 2016 pertains to the loans receivable from a related party amounting to P242.0 million and P317.0 million, respectively, which comprise 87% and 89% of the Group's loans and receivables in 2017 and 2016, respectively.

The table below shows the maximum exposure to credit risk of the financial assets of the Group:

THE CONTRACTOR OF STREET	344,177,805		2,152,580	346,270,38

The Group expects the current portion of the lease receivables to be realized within three (3) months from the end of the reporting period. The amounts due from related parties are all collectible and of good credit quality.

High grade assets are considered as having very low risk and can easily be converted to cash. These assets are considered for counterparties that possess strong to very strong capacity to meet their obligations.

In 2017, past due but not impaired receivables are aged 90 to 120 days while impaired receivables are aged over 120 days (2016 - impaired receivables are aged over 120 days).

(ii) Cash in bank

The Group has maintained business relationships with an accredited universal bank that has high credit standing in the financial services industry.

The remaining cash in the consolidated statement of financial position pertains to cash on hand which is not subject to credit risk.

(iii) Receivables

Loan, interest, lease, and other receivables from related parties

Credit exposure of the Group on loan and other receivables from related parties is considered to be low as there is no history of default and known to have strong credit history. Additionally, credit risk is minimized since the related parties are paying on normal credit terms based on contracts.

The maximum credit risk exposure is equal to the carrying amount as at December 31, 2017 and 2016 (Note 3).

Receivables from third parties

The credit quality of receivables that are neither past due nor impaired can be assessed by reference to historical information about counterparty default rates.

The Group does not hold any collateral in relation to these receivables.

None of the financial assets that are fully performing have been renegotiated in the last year.

(b) Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in market interest rates.

The Group's exposure to the risk of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to the Group's long-term lean receivable with interest rate being repriced on a periodic basis. Since the Group's long-term loan was granted to a related party, there is no requirement for collateral or guaranty (Note 10).

The following tables demonstrate the sensitivity to a reasonably possible change in interest rates for the next financial year, with all other variables held constant, of the Group's income before tax (through the impact on floating rate receivables):

	Change in interest rates	Increase (decrease) on income before income tax
Loans receivable 2017	+21	1,056,540 (1,056,540)
2016	+5 -5	250,691 (250,691)

The Group determined the reasonably possible change in interest rate using the percentage changes in floating rates for the past three (3) quarters for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016.

(c) Equity price risk

Equity price risk is the risk that the fair value of equities will decrease resulting from changes in the levels of equity indices and the value of individual stocks.

The Group's price risk exposure relates to its quoted available-for-sale financial asset where values will fluctuate as a result of changes in market prices.

Such quoted available-for-sale financial asset is subject to price risk due to changes in market values arising from factors specific to the instruments or its issuer or factors affecting all instruments traded in the market.

The effect on other comprehensive income (as a result of a change in fair value of instruments held as available-for-sale financial asset) due to a reasonably possible change in indices, with all other variables held constant, is as follows:

	Change in equity price	Increase (decrease) on other comprehensive income
Quoted club share	11 300
2017	+3	512.821
5-86-71	-3	(512,821)
2016	+15	555,000
SERVICE	-15	(555,000)

The Group determined the reasonably possible change in equity pricing percentage changes in the fairvalue for the past three (3) years.

(d) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the entity will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments. Prudent liquidity risk management implies maintaining sufficient cash and the availability of funding.

The Group's objective is to maintain a balance between continuity of funding and flexibility through the use of cash and cash equivalents and loans. The Group also monitors its risk to shortage of funds through monthly evaluation of the projected and actual cash flow information. The table below summarizes the maturity profile of the Group's other financial liabilities (undiscounted amounts of principal and related interest) as at December 31.

(8.2 Capital management

The primary objective of the Group's capital management is to ensure that it maintains a strong credit rating and healthy capital ratios in order to support its business and maximize shareholder value. The Group manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, in light of changes in economic conditions.

The Group monitors capital using a debt to equity ratio, which is total liabilities divided by total equity. Total liabilities include current and noncurrent liabilities. Equity comprises all components of equity.

The Group's objective is to ensure that there are no known events that may trigger direct or contingent financial obligation that is material to the Group, including default or acceleration of an obligation.

The debt to equity ratios as at December 31 are as follows:

	2017	2016
Total liabilities	11,103,622	8,620,191
Total equity	1,004,210,308	1,017,851,656
Debt to equity ratio	0.011:1	0.008:1

The Group is not exposed to externally imposed capital requirement and there were no changes in the Group's approach to capital management during the year.

18.3 Fair value estimation of financial assets and liabilities

(a) Loans and receivables

Due to the short-term nature of the Group's financial instruments, the carrying amounts approximate their fair values as at December 31, 2017 and 2016. The carrying amounts of interest-bearing long-term loan receivables approximate their fair values due to periodic repricing based on market interest rates.

(b) Available-for-sale financial assets

The fair value of quoted available-for-sale financial assets is determined by reference to quoted market bid price at the close of business at the end of the reporting dates since this is actively traded in organized financial markets. Unquoted available-for-sale financial assets are carried at cost, less any allowance for impairment loss.

(c) Fair value hierarchy

As at December 31, 2017 and 2016, the Group classifies its quoted available-for-sale financial asset amounting to P20.0 million and P19.5 million, respectively, under Level 1 of the fair value hierarchy. During the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016, there were no transfers between Level 1 and Level 2 fair value measurements, and no transfers into and out of Level 3 fair value measurement.

Note 19 - Critical accounting estimates, assumptions, and judgments

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with PFRS requires management to make judgments, estimates, and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the consolidated financial statements and the related notes. The estimates, assumptions, and judgments used are based upon management's evaluation of the relevant facts and circumstances as at the date of the consolidated financial statements. These are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. Actual results could differ from such estimates.

The estimates, assumptions, and judgments that may have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities within the next financial year are discussed below.

19.1 Critical accounting estimates and assumptions

(a) Fair value of financial instruments

Where the fair values of financial assets and financial liabilities recorded in the consolidated statement of financial position or disclosed in the notes to consolidated financial statements cannot be derived from active markets, these are determined using internal valuation techniques using generally accepted market valuation models such as discounted cash flow technique. The related balances are disclosed in Note 18 3.

(b) Estimated useful lives of condominium units

The Group's management determines the estimated useful lives and related depreciation and amortization charges for its condominium units. This estimate is based on the expected future economic benefit to the Group. Management will increase the depreciation and amortization charge where useful lives are less than previously estimated lives, or it will write-off or write-down technically obsolete assets that have been abandoned or sold. Management believes that the current estimated useful lives of condominium units (Note 20.7) approximate the actual economic benefits of these assets to the Group. Further, management does not foresee any changes in terms of business operations that would warrant reassessment of estimated useful lives. The carrying values of the investment properties are disclosed in Note 7. If the estimated useful lives of condominium units differed by 10%, the Group's income before income tax would increase/decrease by Po.03 million for the years ended December 31, 2017 and 2016.

19.2 Critical accounting judgments

(a) Operating lease - Group as lessor

The Group has entered into various commercial property leases on its investment properties. The Group has determined that it retains all the significant risks and rewards of ownership of these properties as the Group considered, among others, the length of the lease term as compared with the estimated life of the assets, the present value of the minimum lease payments at inception of the lease does not substantially cover the fair value of the leased asset, absence of: i) ownership transfer at the end of the lease term; and ii) option to purchase the asset at a sufficiently lower amount than fair value. The leased assets are also not of a specialized nature. The Group's operating lease contracts are accounted for as non-cancellable operating leases: In determining whether a lease contract is cancellable or not, the Group considers, among others, the significance of the penalty, including economic consequence to the lessee. Total rent income arising from operating leases amounted to P18.0 million for the year ended December 31, 2017 (2016 - P20.5 million; 2015 - P19.4 million).

(b) Contingencies

The Group is currently involved in a legal proceeding and claims by third parties. The estimate of the probable cost for the resolution of these claims has been developed in consultation with outside counsel handling the defense in these matters and is based upon an analysis of potential results. The Group currently does not believe that these proceedings and claims by third parties will have a material effect on the Group's consolidated financial statements (Note 17).

(c) Impairment of investment properties

The Group assesses impairment on investment properties whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable. This includes considering certain indications of impairment such as significant changes in asset usage, significant decline in assets' market value, or physical damage of an asset, significant underperformance relative to expected historical or projected future operating results and significant negative industry or economic trends. The Group recognizes an impairment loss if such indications are present and whenever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount. This requires the Group to make estimates and assumptions that can materially affect the consolidated financial statements. Future events could cause the Group to conclude that these assets are impaired. Any resulting additional impairment loss could have a material adverse impact on the Group's financial condition and results of operations.

As at December 31, 2017 and 2016, there are no noted indicators of impairment on the Group's investment properties. The carrying values of investment properties amounted to P205.9 million and P209.5 million as at December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively.

(d) Determining impairment of receivables

The Group maintains an allowance for doubtful accounts on its receivables at a level considered adequate to provide for any potential uncollectible receivable. The level of this allowance is regularly evaluated by the Group. The Group assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists for a receivable by considering the financial condition of the counterparty. The Group reviews the status of the receivables and identifies amounts that are to be provided with allowance on a continuous basis. The amount and timing of recorded expenses for any period would differ if the Group made different judgments or utilized different estimates. An increase in the Group's allowance for doubtful accounts would increase the Group's recorded expenses and decrease current assets. The carrying value of the Group's receivables amounted to P276.0 million and P353.7 million as at December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Provision for doubtful accounts on the Group's receivables as at December 31, 2017 amounted to P2.6 million (2016 - P2.2 million). There were no past due accounts as at December 31, 2017 and 2016 that were not already provided with provision for doubtful accounts (Note 3).

(e) Determining impairment of other current assets

Management believes that the Group's input VAT and CWT may not be recoverable because of the expected future minimal transactions where the Group's input VAT and CWT will be utilized. Provision for impairment loss amounted to P3.5 million as at December 31, 2017 (2016 - P3.3 million) (Note 4).

The amount and timing of recorded expenses for any period would therefore differ based on the judgment or estimates made. If assessment of recoverability of input VAT and CWT was favorable, the Group's recorded expense would decrease by P1.4 million in 2017 and 2016.

(f) Impairment of available-for-sale financial assets

The Group recognizes impairment losses on available-for-sale financial assets when there has been a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of such investments below its cost or where other objective evidence of impairment exists. The determination of what is "significant" or "prolonged" requires judgment. In determining whether the decline in value is significant, the Group considers historical volatility of market price (i.e., the higher the historical volatility, the greater the decline in fair value before it is likely to be regarded as significant) and the period of time over which the market price has been depressed (i.e., a sudden decline is less significant than a sustained fall of the same magnitude over a longer period). Future events could cause the Group to conclude that these assets are impaired. Any resulting additional impairment loss could have a material impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements. Allowance for impairment of available-for-sale financial assets amounted to Po.9 million as at December 31, 2017 and 2016. The carrying value of available-for-sale financial assets amounted to P20.0 million and P19.5 million as at December 31, 2017 and 2016, respectively (Note 5). Details of the sensitivity analysis performed on change in market price are shown in Note 18.1 (c).

(g) Impairment of investments in associates

Investments in associates carried at equity method are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable.

To determine if its investment in CLI is impaired, the Group evaluates whether its ownership interest in the net assets of its associate after fair value adjustments on non-depreciable non-current assets of CLI amounting to P2,300,000,000 and P2,121,000,000 in 2017 and 2016, respectively, is less than its cost. Other factors considered are financial health, and short and long-term business outlook, including operational and financing cash flows. As at December 31, 2017, CLI's net assets after fair value adjustments amounted to P2,358,269,908 and hence, the investment is not deemed to be impaired (2016 - P2,156,890,659). The carrying value of investment in CLI amounted to P3,37,596,800 as at December 31, 2017 and 2016 (Note 6).

In 2016, the Group approved the write-off of KPCI and GVI, associates who were already issued with tax clearance and certificate of dissolution (Note 6).

(h) Recognition of deferred income tax assets

The Group's assessment on the recognition of certain deferred income tax assets on non-deductible temporary differences, and carryforward benefit of NOLCO and MCIT, is based on the forecasted taxable income of the following subsequent periods. This forecast is based on the Group's past results and future expectations on revenues and expenses. Management believes that future taxable profit may not be available against which these temporary differences and carryforward benefit of NOLCO and excess MCIT can be applied, thus, no deferred income tax assets and MCIT were recognized as at December 31, 2017 and 2016 (Note 14).

Note 20 - Summary of significant accounting policies

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of these consolidated financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all years presented, unless otherwise stated.

20.1 Basis of preparation

The consolidated financial statements of the Group have been prepared in accordance with Philippine Financial Reporting Standards (PFRS). The term PFRS in general includes all applicable PFRS, Philippine Accounting Standards (PAS), and interpretations of the Philippine Interpretations Committee (PIC), Standing Interpretations Committee (SIC) and International Financial Reporting Interpretations Committee (IFRIC) which have been approved by the Financial Reporting Standards Council (FRSC) and adopted by the SEC.

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, as modified by the revaluation of available-for-sale financial assets.

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements in conformity with PFRS requires the use of certain critical accounting estimates and assumptions. It also requires management to exercise its judgment in the process of applying the Group's accounting policies. The areas involving a higher degree of judgment or complexity, or areas where estimates and assumptions are significant to the consolidated financial statements are disclosed in Note 19.

Changes in accounting policies and disclosures

(a) New interpretation and amended standards adopted by the Group

There are no new standards, amendments to existing standards, and interpretations which are effective for the financial year beginning on January 1, 2017 which would have a significant impact or is considered relevant to the Group's consolidated financial statements.

(b) New standards, amendments to existing standards and interpretations not yet adopted

A number of new standards, and amendments and interpretations to existing standards are effective for annual periods after January 1, 2017, and have not been applied in preparing these consolidated financial statements. None of these are expected to have an effect on the Group's consolidated financial statements, except as set out below:

PFRS 9, Financial instruments' (effective January 1, 2018), deals with the classification, measurement, and impairment of financial instruments, as well as hedge accounting. PFRS 9 replaces the multiple classification and measurement models for financial assets in PAS 39 with a single model that has three classification categories: amortized cost, fair value through other comprehensive income, and fair value through profit or loss. Classification under PFRS 9 is driven by the entity's business model for managing the financial assets and whether the contractual characteristics of the financial assets represent solely payments of principal and interest. Investments in equity instruments are required to be measured at fair value through profit or loss with the irrevocable option at inception to present changes in fair value in other comprehensive income. The classification and measurement of financial liabilities under PFRS 9 remains the same as in PAS 39 except where an entity has chosen to measure a financial liability at fair value through profit or loss. For such liabilities, changes in fair value related to changes in own credit risk are presented separately in other comprehensive income. Currently, the Group recognizes the change in fair value of its available-for-sale financial asset in other comprehensive income. Upon adoption of PFRS 9, the Group may retain this classification. In addition, there will be no impact on the Group's accounting for financial liabilities, as the new requirements only affect the accounting for financial liabilities designated at fair value through profit or loss and the Group does not have any such liabilities.

The impairment rules of PFRS 9 introduce an expected credit losses model that replaces the incurred loss impairment model used in PAS 39. Such new impairment model will generally result in earlier recognition of losses compared to PAS 39. Given the nature of the Group's receivables and historical collection rate, the Group does not anticipate that PFRS 9 will have a material impact to the consolidated financial statements.

The hedging rules of PFRS 9 better align hedge accounting with an entity's risk management strategies. Also, some of the prohibitions and rules in PAS 39 are removed or changed, making hedge accounting easier or less costly to achieve for many hedges. The Group has no hedging activities as at December 31, 2017 and 2016.

- PFRS 15, 'Revenue from contracts with customers' (effective January 1, 2018), deals with revenue recognition and establishes principles for reporting useful information to users of financial statements about the nature, amount, timing and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows arising from an entity's contracts with customers. Revenue is recognized when a customer obtains control of a good or service and, thus has the ability to direct the use and obtain the benefits from the good or service. Under the new standard, the notion of control replaces the existing notion of risks and rewards. The standard replaces PAS 18, Revenue, and PAS 11, Construction Contracts, and related interpretations. A five-step process must be applied before revenue can be recognized which include: (i) identification of contracts with customers; (ii) identification of the separate performance obligation; (iii) determination of the transaction price of the contract; (iv) allocation of the transaction price to each of the separate performance obligations; and (v) recognition of revenue as each performance obligation is satisfied. Revenue may also be recognized earlier than under current standards if the consideration varies for any reasons (such as for incentives, rebates, performance fees, royalties, success of an outcome, etc.) - minimum amounts must be recognized if these are not at significant risk of reversal. Further, the point at which revenue is able to be recognized may shift; some revenue which is currently recognized at a point in time at the end of a contract may have to be recognized over the contract term and vice versa. The Group intends to adopt the standard on January 1, 2018 but has assessed that it will not have a significant effect on its consolidated financial statements as a result of adoption of this standard as its revenues are mainly derived from dividends, interest, and rental income, which are all fixed in amount and the period covered is defined. Additionally, leases are outside the scope of PFRS 15, and therefore, there will be no impact on the Group's consolidated financial statements upon adoption in January 2018.
- PFRS 16, 'Leases' (effective January 1, 2019). The standard now requires lessees to recognize a lease liability reflecting future lease payments and a 'right-of-use asset' for virtually all lease contracts. The International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) has included an optional exemption for certain short-term leases and leases of low-value assets; however, this exemption can only be applied by lessees. For lessors, the accounting stays almost the same. However, as the IASB has updated the guidance on the definition of a lease (as well as the guidance on the combination and separation of contracts), lessors will also be affected by the new standard. At the very least, the new accounting model for lessees is expected to impact negotiations between lessors and lessees. Under PFRS 16, a contract is, or contains, a lease if the contract conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration. Earlier application is permitted, but only in conjunction with PFRS 15, Revenue from Contracts with Customers. In order to facilitate transition, entities can choose a 'aimplified approach' that includes certain reliefs related to the measurement of the right-of-use asset and the lease liability, rather than full retrospective application; furthermore, the 'simplified approach' does not require a restatement of comparatives. In addition, as a practical expedient entities are not required to reassess whether a contract is, or contains, a lease at the date of initial application (that is, such contracts are "grandfathered"). The Group has initially assessed that the adoption of the new standard will not have an impact on the consolidated financial statements as it is mainly the lessor in the existing lease agreements. While some differences may arise as a result of the new guidance on the definition of the lease, the Group has opted to apply such guidance only to contracts entered into (or changed) on or after the date of initial application. Existing lease contracts will not be reassessed and such expedient will be consistently applied to all contracts.

20.2 Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of Parent Company and its subsidiaries as at December 31, 2017 and 2016 and for each of the three years in the period ended December 31, 2017. The Group uses uniform accounting policies; any difference between the subsidiaries and Parent Company are adjusted properly.

All intra-group balances, transactions, and unrealized gains and losses resulting from intra-group transactions are eliminated in full.

Assessment of control

The Group controls an investee if and only if the Group has:

- Power over the investee (i.e. existing rights that give it the current ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee);
- · Exposure, or rights, to variable returns from its involvement with the investee; and
- The ability to use its power over the investee to affect its returns.

When the Group has less than a majority of the voting or similar rights of an investee, the Group considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether it has power over an investee, including:

- The contractual arrangement with the other vote holders of the investee.
- · Rights arising from other contractual arrangements
- The Group's voting rights and potential voting rights

The Parent Company re-assesses whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements of control. Non-controlling interests (NCI) pertain to the equity in a subsidiary not attributable, directly, or indirectly to the Parent Company. NCI represent the portion of profit or loss and the net assets not held by the Group and are presented separately in the consolidated statement of income and consolidated statement of total comprehensive income and within equity in the consolidated statement of financial position and consolidated statement of changes in equity.

Profit or loss and each component of other comprehensive income are attributed to the equity holders of the Parent Company and to the NCL even if this results in the NCI having a deficit balance. Acquisitions of NCI are accounted for using the acquisition method, whereby the Group considers the acquisition of NCI as an equity transaction. Any premium or discount on subsequent purchases from NCI shareholders is recognized directly in equity and attributed to the owners of the parent.

A change in the ownership interest of a subsidiary, without a loss of control, is accounted for as an equity transaction. If the Group loses control over a subsidiary, it:

- Derecognizes the assets (including goodwill) and liabilities of the subsidiary
- · Derecognizes the carrying amount of any non-controlling interests
- · Derecognizes the cumulative translation differences recorded in equity
- · Recognizes the fair value of the consideration received
- · Recognizes the fair value of any investment retained
- Recognizes any surplus or deficit in profit or loss

 Reclassifies the Parent Company's share of components previously recognized in other comprehensive income to profit or loss or retained earnings, as appropriate, as would be required if the Group had directly disposed of the related assets or liabilities

As at December 31, 2017 and 2016, NCI pertains to 44% and 5% ownership of KPMI Retirement Plan and KPMI, respectively in GRDC.

The financial information of GRDC and its wholly-owned subsidiary, GMRI, is provided below. This information is based on amounts before inter-company eliminations.

There are no significant restrictions on the Group's ability to use the assets or settle liabilities within the Group. There is no difference on the voting rights on non-controlling interests compared to majority shareholders.

20.3 Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalents include cash on hand, deposits held at call with banks, other short-term, highly liquid investments with original maturities of three (3) months or less that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risks of changes in value. These are carried in the consolidated statement of financial position at face amount or at nominal amount.

20.4 Receivables

Receivables arising from regular sale of services with average credit term of 30 to 60 days are measured at the original invoice amount which approximates fair value (as the effect of discounting is immaterial), less any provision for impairment. Other receivables are recognized initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any provision for impairment.

Receivables are included in current assets if maturity is within 12 months from the reporting date. Otherwise, these are classified as non-current assets.

A provision for impairment of receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the Group will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of the receivables. Significant financial difficulties of the debtor, probability that the debtor will enter bankruptcy or financial reorganization, and default or delinquency in payments are considered indicators that the receivable is impaired. The amount of the provision is the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows, discounted at the effective interest rate. The carrying amount of the asset is reduced through the use of an allowance account, and the amount of the loss is recognized in the consolidated statement of income within operating expenses. When a receivable remains uncollectible after the Group has exerted all legal remedies, it is written-off against the allowance account for receivables. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written-off are credited against operating expenses in the consolidated statement of income.

20.5 Financial instruments

(a) Classification

The Group classifies its financial assets and liabilities according to the categories described below. The classification depends on the purpose for which the financial assets and liabilities were acquired. Management determines the classification of its financial assets and liabilities at initial recognition.

Financial assets

The Group classifies its financial assets in the following categories: loans and receivables, held-to-maturity investments, available-for-sale financial assets at fair value through profit or loss. As at December 31, 2017 and 2016, the Group only has financial assets classified as loans and receivables and available-for-sale financial assets.

(i) Loans and receivables

Loans and receivables are non-derivative financial assets with fixed or determinable payments that are not quoted in an active market. These are included in current assets, except for maturities greater than 12 months after the reporting date, in which case, these are classified as non-current assets. As at December 31, 2017 and 2016, the Group's loans and receivables include cash and cash equivalents, loan receivables, current portion of lease receivables, interest receivables, and due from related parties.

(ii) Available-for-sale financial assets

Available-for-sale financial assets are non-derivative financial assets that are either designated in this category or not classified in any of the three (3) other categories. The Group designates financial instruments in this category if these are purchased and held indefinitely and may be sold in response to liquidity requirements or changes in market conditions (Note 5).

Financial liabilities

The Group classifies its financial liabilities in the following categories: financial liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (including financial liabilities held for trading and those designated at fair value); and financial liabilities at amortized cost. The Group's financial liabilities are of the nature of financial liabilities at amortized cost.

Financial liabilities at amortized cost pertains to issued financial instruments that are not classified as at fair value through profit or loss and contain contract obligations to deliver cash or another financial asset to the holder or to settle the obligation other than the exchange of a fixed amount of cash. These are included in current liabilities, except for maturities greater than 12 months after the reporting period which are classified as non-current liabilities.

The Group's financial liabilities at amortized cost include accounts payable and other current liabilities (except payable to government agencies) and refundable deposits.

(b) Recognition and measurement

(i) Initial recognition and measurement

Regular purchases and sales of investments are recognized on trade date (the date on which the Group commits to purchase or sell the asset) at invoice amount. Financial assets are initially recognized at fair value plus transaction costs for all financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss. Financial assets and liabilities are initially recognized at fair value plus transaction costs.

The Group recognizes a financial liability in the consolidated statement of financial position when the Group becomes a party to the contractual provision of the instrument. Financial liabilities at amortized cost are initially recognized at fair value.

(ii) Subsequent measurement

Louns and receivables are subsequently carried at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment.

Available-for-sale financial assets are subsequently carried at fair value. Changes in the fair value of monetary and non-monetary assets classified as available-for-sale are recognized in other comprehensive income.

Financial liabilities at amortized cost are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Amortized cost is calculated by taking into account any discount or premium on the issue and fees that are an integral part of the effective interest rate.

(c) Impairment of financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or group of financial assets is impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired and impairment losses are incurred only if there is objective evidence of impairment as a result of one or more events that occurred after the initial recognition of the asset (a 'loss event') and that loss event (or events) has an impact on the estimated future cash flows of the financial asset or group of financial assets that can be reliably estimated.

Evidence of impairment may include indications that the debtors or a group of debtors is experiencing significant financial difficulty, default or delinquency in interest or principal payments, the probability that they will enter bankruptcy or other financial reorganisation, and where observable data indicate that there is a measurable decrease in the estimated future cash flows, such as changes in arrears or economic conditions that correlate with defaults.

(i) Loans and receivables

For loans and receivables, the Group first assesses whether objective evidence of impairment exists individually for receivables that are individually significant, and collectively for receivables that are not individually significant using the criteria above. If the Group determines that no objective evidence of impairment exists for an individually assessed receivable, whether significant or not, it includes the asset in a group of financial assets with similar credit risk characteristics and collectively assesses those for impairment. Receivables that are individually assessed for impairment and for which an impairment loss is or continues to be recognized are not included in a collective assessment of impairment.

The amount of the loss is measured as the difference between the asset's carrying amount and the present value of estimated future cash flows (excluding future credit losses that have not been incurred) discounted at the financial asset's original effective interest rate. The asset's carrying amount is reduced and the amount of the loss is recognized in profit or loss. If loans and receivables have a variable interest rate, the discount rate for measuring any impairment loss is the current effective interest rate determined under the contract. As a practical expedient, the Group may measure impairment on the basis of an instrument's fair value using observable market price.

If, in a subsequent period, the amount of the impairment loss decreases and the decrease can be related objectively to an event occurring after the impairment was recognized (such as an improvement in the debtor's credit rating), the reversal of the previously recognized impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss. Reversals of previously recorded impairment provision are based on the result of management's update assessment, considering the available facts and changes in circumstances, including but not limited to results of recent discussions and arrangements entered into with customers as to the recoverability of receivables at the end of the reporting period.

Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written-off are credited against operating expenses in profit or loss.

Impairment testing of receivables is described in Note 20.4.

(ii) Available-for-sale financial assets

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is objective evidence that a financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired.

For equity investments, a significant or prolonged decline in the fair value of security below its cost is also evidence that the assets are impaired. If any such evidence exists the cumulative loss - measured as the difference between the acquisition cost and the current fair value, less any impairment loss on that financial asset previously recognized in profit or loss - is removed from equity and recognized in profit or loss. Impairment losses recognized in profit or loss on equity instruments are not reversed through profit or loss.

(d) Derecognition

Financial assets are derecognized when the rights to receive cash flows from assets have expired or have been transferred and the Group has transferred substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership.

Financial liabilities are derecognized when extinguished, i.e. when the obligation is discharged or is cancelled or has expired.

(e) Offsetting of financial assets and liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount reported in the consolidated statement of financial position when there is a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and there is an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously. The legally enforceable right must not be contingent on future events and must be enforceable in the normal course of business and in the event of default, insolvency or bankruptcy of the Group or the counterparty. As at December 31, 2017 and 2016, there were no offsetting arrangements.

20.6 Investments in associates

An associate is an entity over which the Group has significant influence. Significant influence is the power to participate in the financial and operating policy decisions of the investee, but is not control or joint control over those policies.

The Group's investments in associates are accounted for using the equity method in the consolidated financial statements from the date on which it becomes an associate. Cumulative adjustments for periods prior to this event are not recognized.

Under the equity method, the investments in associates are carried in the consolidated statement of financial position at cost plus post-acquisition changes in the Group's share of net assets of the associates, less any dividends declared and impairment in value. If an investor's share of losses of an associate equals or exceeds its interest in the associate, the investor discontinues recognizing its share of further losses. The interest in an associate is the carrying amount of the investment in the associate under the equity method together with any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the investor's net investment in the associate. After application of the equity method, the Group determines whether it is necessary to recognize any additional impairment loss with respect to the Group's net investment in the associate. The consolidated statement of income reflects the Group's share in the results of operations of the associates. This is included in the "Equity in not earnings of associates" account in the consolidated statement of income. After the Group's interest is reduced to zero, additional losses are provided to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the associate. When there has been a change recognized directly in the equity of the associate, the Group recognizes its share of any change and discloses this, when applicable, in the consolidated statement of changes in equity.

When an associate makes dividend distributions to the Group in excess of the carrying amount, a liability should only be recognized if the Group is obliged to refund the dividend, has incurred a legal or constructive obligation or made payments on behalf of the associate. In the absence of such obligations, the Group recognizes the excess in net profit for the period. When the associate subsequently makes profits, the Group will start recognizing profits when they exceed the excess cash distributions recognized in net profit plus any previously unrecognized losses.

The reporting dates of the associates and the Group are identical and the associates' accounting policies conform to those used by the Group for like transactions and events in similar circumstances.

Unrealized gains arising from intercompany transactions with its associates are eliminated to the extent of the Group's interest in the associate, against the investment in the associate. Unrealized losses are eliminated similarly but only to the extent that there is no evidence of impairment of the asset transferred.

Investment in associate is derecognized upon disposal or loss of significant influence over an associate. Upon loss of significant influence over the associate, the Group measures and recognizes any retained investment at its fair value. Any difference between the carrying amount of the associate upon loss of significant influence and the fair value of the retained investment and proceeds from disposal is recognized in profit or loss.

20.7 Investment properties

Investment property is defined as property held by the owner or by the lessee under a finance lease to earn rentals or for capital appreciation or both, rather than for: (a) use in the production of supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes; or (b) sale in the common course of business.

The Group's investment property, principally comprising of land, building, and condominium units, are held for capital appreciation and is not occupied by the Group. The Group has adopted the cost model for its investment properties (Note 2).

Transfers are made to investment property when, and only when, there is a change in use, evidenced by ending of owner-occupation or commencement of an operating lease to another party. Transfers are made from investment property when, and only when, there is a change in use, evidenced by commencement of owner-occupation or commencement of development with a view to sale.

For a transfer from investment property to owner-occupied property or inventories, the deemed cost of the property for subsequent accounting is its fair value at the date of change in use. If the property occupied by the Group as an owner-occupied property becomes an investment property, the Group accounts for such property in accordance with the policy stated under property and equipment up to the date of change in use.

Depreciation and amortization of investment properties are computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives in years:

Building and improvements	7 to 25
Condominium units	25

The fair value of the investment properties is categorized as Level 3, which used adjusted inputs for valuation that are unobservable as at the date of valuation. The inputs used were asking prices of similar listings and offerings. Significant increases or decreases in asking price would result in higher or lower fair value of the asset.

Investment properties are derecognized when either these have been disposed of or when the investment properties are permanently withdrawn from use and no future economic benefit is expected from their disposal. Any gains or losses on the retirement or disposal of investment properties are recognized in profit or loss in the year of retirement or disposal.

20.8 Property and equipment

Property and equipment are stated at cost, excluding the costs of day-to-day servicing, less accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment in value. Such cost includes the cost of replacing part of such property and equipment when that cost is incurred if the recognition criteria are met. Depreciation is calculated on a straight-line basis over the useful lives of the assets.

The assets' residual values, useful lives and method of depreciation are reviewed, and adjusted if appropriate, at each financial year-end. When a major inspection is performed, its cost is recognized in the carrying amount of the property and equipment as a replacement if the recognition criteria are satisfied.

Depreciation of property and equipment is computed using the straight-line method over the following estimated useful lives in years:

Committee of the Commit
Condominium units	15 to 25
Office machine, furniture and fixtures	1 to 5
Transportation equipment	5

An item of property and equipment is derecognized upon disposal or when no future economic benefits are expected from its use or disposal. Any gain or loss arising on derecognition of the asset (calculated as the difference between the net disposal proceeds and the carrying amount of the asset) is included in profit or loss in the year the asset is derecognized.

20.9 Impairment of non-financial assets

Assets that have an indefinite useful life, including land held for development, investment property (carried at fair value), and investment in subsidiaries, are not subject to depreciation and amortization and are tested annually for impairment.

Assets that have definite useful life are subject to depreciation and amortization and are reviewed for impairment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount may not be recoverable. An impairment loss is recognized for the amount by which the asset's carrying amount exceeds its recoverable amount. The recoverable amount is the higher of an asset's fair value less costs to sell and value in use. For purposes of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the lowest levels for which there are separately identifiable cash flows (cash-generating units). Non-financial assets that are impaired are reviewed for possible reversal of the impairment at each reporting date.

Where an impairment loss subsequently reverses, the carrying amount of the asset or cash-generating unit is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but the increased carrying amount should not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset or cash-generating unit in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized as income immediately in profit or loss.

20.10 Fair value measurement

Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date.

The fair value of a non-financial asset is measured based on its highest and best use. The asset's current use is presumed to be its highest and best use.

The fair value of financial and non-financial liabilities takes into account non-performance risk, which is the risk that the entity will not fulfill an obligation.

The Group classifies its fair value measurements using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels:

- quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (Level 1);
- inputs other than quoted prices included within Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (that is, as prices) or indirectly (that is, derived from prices) (Level 2); and
- inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (that is, unobservable inputs) (Level 3).

The appropriate level is determined on the basis of the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement.

(a) Financial instruments

The fair value of financial instruments traded in active markets is based on quoted market prices at the reporting date. A market is regarded as active if quoted prices are readily and regularly available from an exchange, dealer, broker, industry group, pricing service, or regulatory agency, and those prices represent actual and regularly occurring market transactions on an arm's length basis. These instruments are included in Level 1. The available-for-sale financial assets of the Group are classified under Level 1 category.

The fair value of financial instruments that are not traded in an active market (for example, over-thecounter derivatives) is determined by using valuation techniques. These valuation techniques maximize the use of observable market data where it is available and rely as little as possible on entity specific estimates. If all significant inputs required to fair value an instrument are observable, the asset or liability is included in Level 2. There are no financial instruments that full under the Level 2 category.

If one or more of the significant inputs is not based on observable market data, the instrument is included in Level 3. There are no financial instruments that fall under the Level 3 category. There were no transfers from one category to another in 2017 and 2016.

(b) Non-financial assets or liabilities

The Group uses valuation techniques that are appropriate in the circumstances and applies the technique consistently. Commonly used valuation techniques are as follows:

- Market approach A valuation technique that uses prices and other relevant information generated by market transactions involving identical or comparable (i.e., similar) assets, liabilities or a group of assets and liabilities, such as a business.
- Income approach Valuation techniques that convert future amounts (e.g., cash flows or income and expenses) to a single current (i.e., discounted) amount. The fair value measurement is determined on the basis of the value indicated by current market expectations about those future amounts.
- Cost approach A valuation technique that reflects the amount that would be required currently to replace the service capacity of an asset (often referred to as current replacement cost).

Specific valuation techniques used to value financial instruments include:

- Quoted market prices or dealer quotes for similar instruments.
- The fair value of interest rate swaps is calculated as the present value of the estimated future cash flows based on observable yield curves.
- The fair value of forward foreign exchange contracts is determined using forward exchange rates at the reporting date, with the resulting value discounted back to present value.
- Other techniques, such as discounted cash flow analysis, are used to determine fair value for the remaining financial instruments.

Level: fair values of investment properties have been derived using the sales comparison approach. This comparison approach considers the sales of similar or substitute properties and related market data and establishes a value estimate by processes involving comparison. Sales prices of comparable properties in close proximity are adjusted for differences in key attributes such as property size. The most significant input into this valuation approach is price per square meter.

The Group has no non-financial assets or liabilities classified under Level 2 and 3 category,

20.11 Equity

(a) Share capital and share premium

Share capital is measured at par value for all shares issued. When the Group issues shares in excess of par, the excess is recognized as share premium. Incremental costs incurred directly attributable to the issuance of new shares are treated as deduction from share premium.

(b) Treasury shares

Treasury shares are recorded at cost and presented as a deduction from equity. When the shares are retired, the share capital account is reduced by the par value and the excess of cost over par value upon retirement is debited to share premium to the extent of the specific or average share premium when the shares were issued and to retained earnings for the remaining balance.

(c) Retained earnings

Retained earnings include current and prior year's results of operations, net of transactions with shareholders and dividends declared, if any.

Cash dividend distribution to the Group's shareholders is recognized as a liability in the Group's consolidated financial statements in the period in which the dividends are approved by the Group's BOD.

20.12 Revenue, income, and expense recognition

(a) Revenue and income

Revenue or income is recognized to the extent that it is probable that economic benefits will flow to the Group and the revenue or income can be reliably measured. In arrangements where the Group is acting as principal to its customers, revenue or income is recognized on a gross basis. However, if the Group is acting as an agent to its customers, only the amount of net commission retained is recognized as revenue or income.

The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue or income is recognized:

(i) Rental income

Rental income from investment properties is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(ii) Interest income

Interest income is recognized as the interest accrues, taking into account the effective yield on the asset.

(iii) Management fees

Management fees are recognized as the services are rendered based on the terms of the management contract.

(iv) Directors' fees

Directors' fees are recognized as the services are rendered.

(v) Dividend income

Dividend income is recognized when the shareholders' right to receive the payment is established.

(b) Expenses

Expenses are decreases in economic benefits during the accounting period in the form of outflows or decrease of assets or incurrence of liabilities that result in decrease in equity, other than those relating to distributions to equity participants. Expenses are recognized in profit or loss in the period these are incurred.

20.13 Employee benefits

Short-term employee benefits include items such as salaries and wages, social security contributions and non-momentary benefits, if expected to be settled wholly within 12 months after the end of the reporting period in which the employees rendered the related services. Short-term employee benefits are recognized as expense as incurred. When an employee has rendered service to the Group during the reporting period, the Group recognizes the undiscounted amount of short-term employee benefits expected to be paid in exchange for that service as a liability (accrued expense), after deducting any amount already paid. Benefits falling due more than 12 months after the end of the reporting period are discounted to their present value, if material.

The related liability on employee benefits is derecognized when the obligation is discharged or cancelled.

20.14 Leases - Group as lessor

The determination of whether an arrangement is, or contains a lease, is based on the substance of the arrangement at inception date, whether the fulfillment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets or the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset. A reassessment is made after the inception of the lease only if one of the following applies:

- (a) there is a change in the contractual terms, other than a renewal or extension of the arrangement;
- (b) a renewal option is exercised or extension granted, unless the term of the renewal and extension was initially included in the lease term;
- (c) there is a change in the determination of whether the fulfillment is dependent on a specified asset; or
- (d) there is a substantial change to the asset.

Where a reassessment is made, lease accounting shall commence or cease from the date of the change in circumstances that gave rise to the reassessment for scenarios (a), (c), and (d) above and at the date of renewal or extension period for scenario (b).

Group as a lessor

Leases where the Group retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the asset are classified as operating leases. Lease income from these operating leases is recognized on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

Refundable deposits

Refundable deposits are measured initially at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the using effective interest method. Refundable deposits are measured at the original amount (as the effect of discounting is immaterial). These are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one (1) year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, these are presented as non-current liabilities. These are derecognized once refunded to customers.

Advance rentals

Advance rentals represent rentals paid in advance by the tenants that are to be applied in subsequent month's rental. These are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within one (1) year or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business if longer). If not, these are presented as non-current liabilities. These are derecognized once applied against rent due.

20.15 Income taxes

The income tax expense for the period comprises current and deferred income tax. Tax is recognized in profit or loss, except to the extent that it relates to items recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity. In this case, the tax is also recognized in other comprehensive income or directly in equity, respectively.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation and establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Deferred income tax is recognized on temporary differences arising between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts in the consolidated financial statements. However, deferred income tax is not accounted for if it arises from initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction other than a business combination that at the time of the transaction affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss. Deferred income tax is determined using tax rates based on existing laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date and are expected to apply when the related deferred income tax asset is realized or the deferred income tax liability is settled.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized for all deductible temporary differences, carry-forward of unused tax losses (NOLCO) and unused tax credits (excess MCIT) to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profit will be available against which the temporary differences, unused tax losses and unused tax credits can be utilized.

Deferred income tax assets are recognized on deductible temporary differences arising from investments in subsidiaries, associates, and joint arrangements only to the extent that it is probable the temporary difference will reverse in the future and there is sufficient taxable profit available against which the temporary difference can be utilized.

The Group reassesses at each reporting date the need to recognize a previously unrecognized deferred income tax asset.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognized in full for all taxable temporary differences, except to the extent that the deferred income tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill. Deferred income tax liabilities are provided on taxable temporary differences arising from investments in associates, except for deferred income tax liability where the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference is controlled by the Group and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future. Generally, the Group is unable to control the reversal of the temporary difference for associates. Only where there is an agreement in place that gives the Group the ability to control the reversal of the temporary difference not recognized.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are offset when there is a legally enforceable right to offset current income tax assets against current income tax liabilities and when the deferred income tax assets and liabilities relate to income taxes levied by the same taxation authority on either the taxable entity or different taxable entities where there is an intention to settle the balances on a net basis.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are derecognized when related bases are realized/settled or when it is no longer realizable/due.

20.16 Other assets

Revenue, expenses, and assets are recognized net of the amount of sales tax except:

- where the tax incurred on a purchase of assets or services is not recoverable from the tax authority, in which case the tax is recognized as part of the acquisition cost of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- receivables and payables that are stated with the amount of tax included.

Input VAT is carried at face amount or at nominal amount less allowance for impairment loss. The net amount of VAT recoverable from, or payable to, the tax authority is included as part of other current assets or liabilities in the consolidated statement of financial position.

CWT is recognized as assets in the period such excess income tax payments become available as tax credits to the Group and carried over to the extent that it is probable that the benefit will flow to the Group. These are derecognized when there is a legally enforceable right, as prescribed by the applicable laws, to apply the recognized amounts against the related income tax due.

20.17 Accounts payable and other current liabilities

Accounts payable and other current liabilities are recognized in the period in which the related money, goods or services are received or when a legally enforceable claim against the Group is established. These are recognized initially at fair value and subsequently measured at amortized cost using effective interest method. Accounts payable and other current liabilities are classified as current liabilities if payment is due within 12 months or less (or in the normal operating cycle of the business, if longer). If not, these are presented as non-current liabilities.

Accounts payables and other current liabilities are measured at the original invoice amount (as the effect of discounting is immaterial). The relevant policies on classification, recognition, measurement and derecognition are described in Note 20.5. Payables to government agencies and advance rentals are not considered financial liabilities but are derecognized similarly.

20.18 Earnings per share

(a) Basic

Basic earnings per share is calculated by dividing net income attributable to equity holders of the Parent Company by the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the year, excluding common shares purchased by and held as treasury shares.

(b) Diluted

Diluted earnings per share is calculated by adjusting the weighted average number of shares outstanding to assume conversion of all dilutive potential common shares. As at report date, the Parent Company has no dilutive potential common shares.

20.19 Operating segments

The Group's operating businesses are organized and managed separately according to the nature of the products and services provided, with each segment representing a strategic business unit that offers different products and serves different markets. Financial information on business segments is presented in Note 16.

20.20 Provisions

Provisions, if any, are recognized when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects, where appropriate, the risks specific to the liability. Where discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognized as an interest expense.

20.21 Contingencies

Contingent liabilities are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements but are disclosed in the notes unless the possibility of an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits is remote. Contingent assets are not recognized in the consolidated financial statements but are disclosed in the notes when inflows of economic benefits are probable. If it becomes virtually certain that an inflow of economic benefits will arise, the asset and the related income are recognized in the consolidated financial statements.

20.22 Events after the financial reporting date

Post year-end events that provide additional information about the Group's position at the end of the reporting date (adjusting events) are reflected in the consolidated financial statements. Post year-end events that are not adjusting events are disclosed in the notes to the consolidated financial statements when material.

20.23 Reclassification

Certain accounts in 2016 and 2015 have been reclassified on the consolidated financial statements to conform to the current year presentation. Other income, which consists of director's fees and others amounting to P200,000 and P6,163, respectively, in 2016 and P246,000 and P317,567, respectively, in 2015, has been presented as part of revenue and income in consolidated statement of total comprehensive income. The reclassification did not have any impact on previously reported financial position, retained earnings, and net income.
